

DS 112 ONLINE DISCUSSION QUESTION ON 26/12/2020

09:00 PM — 10:00 PM

Module 1: Theories of Social Development

1. What is development theory and why is the grasp of development theories important for managing development.
2. Why do the dependency theories stress the importance of analysing the international political and economic system in order to understand the state of development in the global South?
3. The Neo-Marxist theories of development and underdevelopment are very strong in diagnosing the relationship between advanced capitalist countries and underdeveloped countries but fall short in their prescription of the way ahead. Discuss.
